MELBOURNE HIGH SCHOOL

ATTENDANCE

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to

- x ensure all children of compulsory school age are enrolled in a registered school and attend school every day the school is open for instruction
- x ensurestudents, staff and parents/carers have a shared understanding of the importance of attending school
- x explain to school staff and parents the key practices and procedures Melbourne High School has in place to
 - o support, monitor and maintain student attendæc
 - o record, monitor and follow up student absences.

SCOPE

This policy applieto all students at Melbourne High School

This policy should be read in conjunction with Department of Education and Training School Attendance Guidelinest does not replace or change the obligations Mélbourne High School, parents and School AttendFamily Law Act 1975 (Cth) and any person with whom a child normally or regularly resides.

POLICY

Schooling is compulsory folitidren and young people aged from 6 to 17 yearsless an exemption from attendance or enrolment has been gran)ed

Daily attendance is important for all children and young people to succeed in education and to ensure thMelbourne High School during normal school hosrevery day of each term unless:

- x the student has a dual enrolment with another school and has only a partial enrolment in Melbourne High Shool, or
- x the student is registered fr home schooling and has only a partial enrolment in Melbourne High Schod for particular activities

Both schools and parents have an important role to play in supporting students to attend school every day.

Melbourne High Schoolelieves all studentshould attend school all day, every day while school is open for instructionand is committed to working with its school community to encourage and support full school attendance.

Our school will identify individual students cohorts who are vulnerable and whose attendance is at risk and/or declining and will work with these students and their parents improve their attendance through a range of interventions and supports.

Students are committed to attending school every day, angivon time andare prepared to learn. Our students are encouraged approach a teacher and seek assist fattoure are any issues that are affecting their attendance.

Melbourne High Schoplarents are committed to ensuring their child/children attend school on time every day when instruction is offered, to Oh3-4.9 (o)11.9 ()] .4 (a)-3.2 (n)-0.8 (n)-0.p6 (u)-0.8 (r)-2.1 (o)-9.6

Managing norattendance and supporting student engagement

Whereabsences are of concern due to their nature or frequepcyastudent'sattendance has fallen below 90% for æubject,or where a student has had for 10 or more periods of unexcused absence over three consecutive days/lelbourne High Schoolvill work collaboratively with parentsthe student, and other professionals, where appropriate, to develop strategies to improve attendance, including:

- x establishing an Attendance Student Support Group
- x implementing a Return to School Plan
- x implementing an Individual Edation Plan
- x implementing a Student Absence Learning Plan for students who will be absent for an extended period
- x arranging for assistance from relevastaff (SLCs and Wellbeing Team)
- x Redemption of time founexcused absences.

We understand from time to time that some students will need additional supports and assistance, and in collaboration with the student and their family, will endeavour to provide this support when it is required,

In situations where a student demonstrates chromicexcused beences the following consequences may be applied

- x The student receives mesult of N (not satisfactory) for the affected subjects
- x The student is no longer eligible for leadership positio (and/or required to vacate any xisting leadership positios)
- x Thestudent isno longer eligible focamps or interstate or international exchanges/trips
- x Other consequences as determined a caseby-casebasis

For VCE TcF asis r99.56 405

022